DENNIS EICHNOR IS IT DANIEL GOES TO KANSAS CITY.

Chosen Chairman of Republican City Committee.

CAME EASILY

ARTHUR PRATT TO REPRESENT FOURTH PRECINCT.

Committee Needs a Secretary, Also, As Ralph Guthrie's Place Was Declared Vacant - Mr. Eichnor Will Have to Hunt Down a Victim-Meet in Wells-Fargo Bank.

A band of seven careworn patriots plodded feariessly along East Second South at 8:20 last night, braving the slippery pavement and the falling rain, But for occasional subdued conversation all was silent as the grave. Noise lessly the march continued until the Commercial block was reached. They entered and wearily ascended the four flights of stairs to Parley Christensen's office. For a time sounds floated down elevator shaft resembling the incantations of a sun dance.

"It's de committee," exclaimed a newsboy. Soon the band retraced its steps down the stairs, for Parley had flown, and another camp for the pow-your must be found.

steps down the stairs, for Parley had flown, and another camp for the powwow must be found.

Chief Robertson led the way then to the Wells-Fargo bank, where, the blinds once lowered, comment was included in on Parley's indisposition.

Then Mr. Robertson, the host and leader, addressed the band: "It is our duty to elect a chairman of the city Republican committee. Caucauses may be held in the lower wait."

The address was greeted with thunder from the Murray skies. The chief turned on a sixteen-candle power lacandescent, and the body settled itself down to business. Joe Lippman, Alex Robertson, P. A. Dix, A. S. Reiser, R. Taylor, W. F. Appleby and T. A. Callister, representing Frank Emery, constituted this august band. Jake Greenewald staid away, in the hope of having a messenger convey the glad news to him of his election, and to aveid any embarrassment. Joe Tuttle had a pressing engagement up City creek and was unable to attend. He, therefore with Jake, was represented by the chief. Walter Meeks constituted the andience.

"All in favor of Joe Lippman acting"

"All in favor of Joe Lippman acting as chairman of this meeting will say "Aye." said the chief. Night Watch-man Pobson, who was passing, said af-terward he thought he heard a cow mooing in West Jordan. The chief anmoting in West Jordan. The chief announced a unanimous response, and the chairman, ere he could resign, was escorted to the teller's stool. He made a 700-m nonparell speech for the honor conferred, and presumed there was no objection to Mr. Appleby acting as secretary. Then he presumed it was in order to elect a city chairman, and picked up the city directory to find the names not marked "declined."

There was quiet for a time, P. A. Dix finally arising and asking if Gill Peyton was not a good man.

"But he told me," said a second brave, "that he deemed his declination in the public press sufficient."

"That settles it," was the verdict. The chief at this juncture warned the secretary not to expectorate on the cashier's rug.

Somebody mentioned Colonel Bruback, whereat everyone smiled.

"I have a man," said Appleby.

"Good," was the response.

The chief amounced that there was a vacancy in the fourth to be filled, and Jos left the chair.

"Well, he isn't here, and hasn't been, and, I take it, has resigned. Who shall fill Mr. Guthrie's place?"

Superintendent of Pacific Express Company Promoted.

The host of friends of J. T. Danlel, who has been the superintendent of the western division of the Pacific Express company, with headquarters in this city, will be glad to learn of his promotion. He has been called to Kansas City, where he becomes superintendent of the Missouri river division at a considerably increased salary.

During his residence in Salt Lake, Mr. Daniel has won the esteem and friendship of many, who will dislike to see him leave Salt Lake for good. No one will miss him more than those employed under him. He was very popular with his men, and as parting tribute, his subordinates gathered at his office yesterday afternoon and presented him with a gold-headed cane and a pearl-handied umbrella, the best that could be found at the store of Josiln & Park. Mr. Daniel accepted the token in a very fitting speech. He left for his new post of duty last night.

Mr. Daniel has been succeeded by J. W. Rogers, who comes here from the headquarters of the company at Omaha. Mr. Rogers has arrived in this city and will be followed in a few days by his family. Superintendent of Pacific Expres

There was trouble on a Fort Douglas City railroad car Friday night, termi-nating in a dangerous gun play on the part of a colored trooper, the built passing between the motorman, Lewis Peck, and Conductor Lamont. The car, Mrs. Lowe Caused a Sensation On Brokers' Row.

A sensation, with people of prominence as principals, occurred on brokers' row yesterday afternoon. Its source was domestic trouble between Mr. and Mrs. De Witt B. Lowe. The wife entered his office apparently very much angered over her husband's fallure to return home Priday night, he having stayed at a hotel. A wordy war was enacted in Mr. Lowe's office, in the midst of which he left. Mrs. Lowe then went to the rear of the Onyx Bank saloon, meeting a girl there, of whom she demanded her name. If it was 'Mabel,' she is alleged to have said that serious trouble would occur. The girl was spirited away to prevent a further scene. Mrs. Lowe, It is said, had a pistol in her possession, and the affair being so very public, created much talk.

Queer Old Law May Affect Market

Street Title.

United States Attorney Whittemere expected to receive the abstract to Market street yesterday, which is being prepared in order that title to the Walker Bros. federal building site and the street may be considered, but it was not finished. He has not formed an opinion concerning the title but a point is being reased which he is considering. Market street, which he street comes from the probability of the street comes from to t, which was part of the estate of Mrs. Thurston's husband, to which she received from the probable court in 1873, there being no will.

Mr. Whittemore publised out the fact that the law of 1823 said that if the deceding left no children the inheritance should not to the widow and should not pass therefrom as long as the deed is perpetuated thereon.

"Did that law authorize the court to decree title in fee or to simply give her allfe interest" asked Mr. Whittemore.

"In a decision of the supreme court in the case of Dooly vs. Stringham there is a decision which holds that if that chause of she had been asked that the characteristic law of 1852 meant anything it means that the widow takes the property so long as she is a widow.

"The former case which they brought that time they may have seen that the law that time they may have seen that the law of 1852. So far as I know they may be 19/18 low awaiting her death or marriage, the latter of which has occurred."
